enjoyed her first book Primavera( Primavera )and although I finished Dark River a month ago I still think about it. She did a great job of creating a rich sense of place and fully develops her characters to the point where you connect with and truly care about them.

Young adult fiction review: 'The River' by Mary Jane Beaufrand

Mary Jane Beaufrand's The River is a troubling book to be sure, but some of its grim-ness is counterbalanced by dark humor and beautiful writing. Best of all is the (semi-predictable) high school romance that's both sweet and satisfying. Behind the Scenes.
