Topical Bible: Supremacy

Churches that are not centered on the exultation of the majesty and beauty of God will scarcely kindle a fervent desire to 'declare his glory among the nations' (Psalm 96:3)." Copied from pages 11-12 of John Piper's book, Let the Nations Be Glad!: The Supremacy of God in Missions.

The Supremacy of God in Preaching | Desiring God

Piper clearly lays out the aim of this book, "My burden in these pages is to plead for the supremacy of God in preaching—that the dominant note of preaching be the freedom of God's sovereign grace, that the unifying theme be the zeal that God has for his own glory, that the grand object of preaching be the infinite and inexhaustible being of God, and that the pervasive atmosphere of ...

The reference to the supremacy of God was new to the Canadian Constitution itself, however. The British North America Acts made no mention of this, even though as author George Egerton remarked, "It is doubtful if the Canadian political elites of 1982 were as firm as the patriarchs of 1867 in their devotion to the supremacy of God"; indeed, many were aiming for more separation of church and ...

The Supremacy of God | Monergism

In God's good providence, all created things serve His purposes; yes-all things! His supremacy is not just outside of time, but inside it as well. He can use the choices of evil angels and men to bring about His good purposes. May our faith resonate with Martin Luther's statement "the devil is God's devil".

Answer: The supremacy of Christ is a doctrine surrounding the authority of Jesus and His God-nature. In the simplest of terms, to affirm the supremacy of Christ is to affirm that Jesus is God. Merriam-Webster's dictionary defines supreme as "highest in rank or authority" or "highest in degree or quality."

The Supremacy of Christ by R.C. Sproul

The Oneness and Supremacy of Allah has been mentioned in abundant places in the Quran, such that it has been ingrained in the minds of the true Muslims for more than fourteen centuries. So much so that Allah has mentioned the inclusion of another God with him as "shirk", the greatest of all sins and with the greatest punishment for those who believe in it, except for those who repent.

"He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through ...

According to Warren Wiersbe, The Supremacy of God in Preaching "calls us back to a biblical standard for preaching, a standard exemplified by many of the pulpit giants of the past, especially Jonathan Edwards and Charles Spurgeon." This newly revised edition is an essential guide for preachers who want to stir the embers of revival. Piper focuses his study on the example of Jonathan ...

Supremacy ...

Here the supremacy of Christ is His preeminence over the Old Testament prophets. Those prophets spoke the Word of God — but Christ is the Word of God. He is not merely a prophet in a long line of prophets. He is the Prophet par excellence. This supreme revelation comes from Him, the One who is more than a prophet — the very Son of God.
